

They made West Park bloom again

Craig Hughes of the Dover Highway Department donated three kousa dogwood trees, three lavender PJM rhododendron bushes and three white rosa rugosa rose bushes. The 300 daffodil bulbs and 120 myrtle plants purchased with Chicabot Garden Club funds were planted by Alicia Billings, Dorothy Boylan, Dorothy Dalton, Phyllis Jackson and her 6-year-old granddaughter, Katie. The effort was recently rewarded with a $500 grant from the "Let's Go Native" Committee of the National Garden Clubs and the Principal Financial Group.

Strawberry Hill Landscaping picked up the trees and shrubs from Lovell's and donated labor to plant them.

From left, Brian Greene of Strawberry Hill Landscaping; Alicia Billings, John Devine of Strawberry Hill Landscaping, Dorothy Boylan, Dorothy Dalton and Craig Hughes of the Dover Highway Department. They helped turn West End Park from a spot infested with weeds and poison ivy into a beautiful spring landscape.

COURTESY PHOTO